

The Samuel School

Media Release Form

Through the course of the year The Samuel School will be engaged in various educational activities that may provide perspective families and the general public with a good glimpse of our school in action. The purpose of this permission slip is to grant permission to The Samuel School to publish student quotes, pictures, and video gained during such educational activities. Publication venues may include the school website, newsletter, emails, local radio, newspaper, and/or video outlets. Participation is strictly voluntary and exemption may be requested. Please indicate below your family's preference with respect to such media publications.
